

Greetings dear members and welcome back!

Save the date, The next luncheon will take place Tuesday September 10, 2013, Le Meridien Hotel

. This Member- to- Member networking event is a guaranteed and no-stress way for you to increase your business connections within AmCham. We have lots of new faces and will begin promptly at 1pm with a brief review of past months activities followed by the main event-B2B. So remember to bring along brochures and business cards to promote your business.

AmCham members will also receive an updated membership directory.

Please confirm your reservation as early as possible-30 000xaf per member.

I look forward to seeing you there!
